Chamber sets fees for 1989

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce set their 1989 fee schedule at their first meeting of the New Year, with a good attendance on hand to discuss the clarifications of categories which were included in the schedule.

During 1989, businesses with 1 to 3 employees will be assessed a $20 membership fee, with the fees for 4 to 9 employees set at $35 and for 10 or more employees, $50. These fees remain unchanged from 1988. Individual memberships will cost $15, except for senior citizens, who will pay $10.

A clarification to solve some problems which have arisen in recent years was added to the schedule. It was noted that the purpose of an individual membership is to allow involvement in the Chamber by those people who are not the owners or managers of a business and who do not represent a business at meetings. Individual members would not be included in the advertising for business promotions as participants, but could be involved as donors if they wished.

The pros and cons of allowing home-based businesses to become business members of the Chamber were discussed, and it was decided that these people could well be a welcome addition to the membership.

Four volunteers will make an immediate start on membership sales: Dave Yake, Sharon Smith, Ed Gregoraschuk and Lynall Slywka, any of whom can be contacted if you wish to buy a membership.

MLA John Drobot was on hand at the meeting, and announced that he will be letting his name stand at the upcoming Provincial Nomination Meeting for the Progressive Conservatives in the St. Paul constituency, scheduled for January 18 in St. Paul.

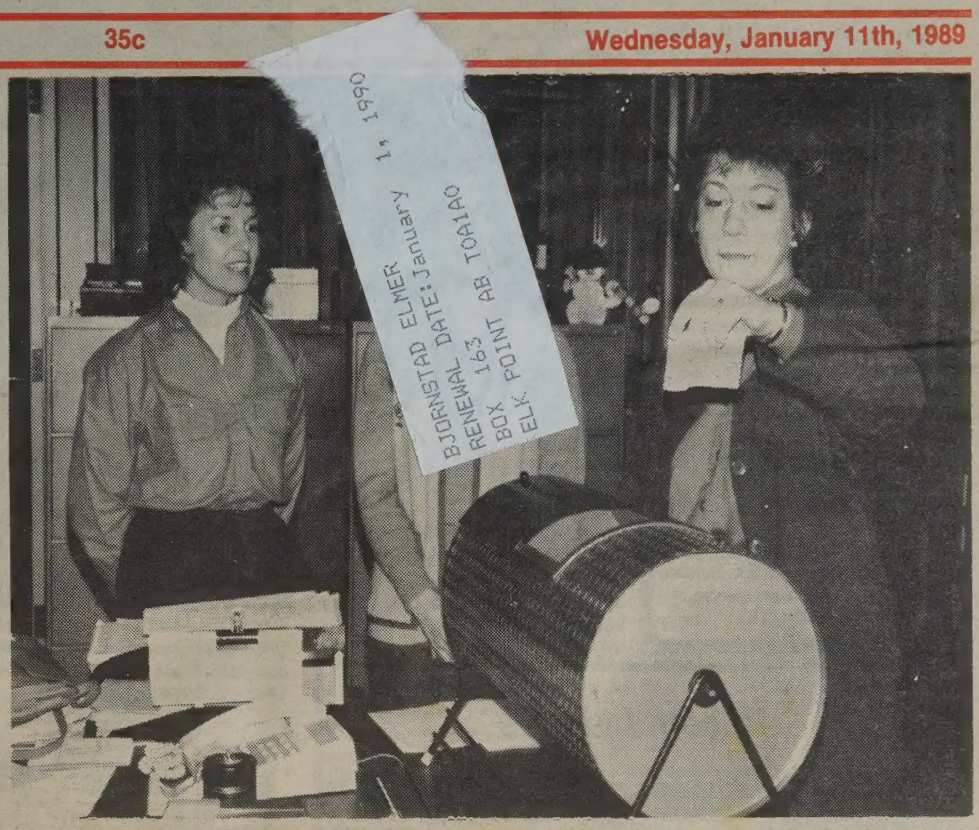
Drobot also announced that Environment Minister Ian Reid has approved the reclamation of the Town of Elk Point's former sanitary landfill site, which was filled to capacity and subsequently abandoned by the Town in late fall of 1988.

Two petitions presently circulating regarding the paving of Secondary Highway 646 between Highway 41 and Secondary Highway 881 were brought to Drobot's attention. While the MLA "Frowns on petitions -- they show up the shortcomings of the government and of myself as your representative," he acknowleged there is a basis for the petitioners' concerns.

Priorities for road improvements are set by the County, Drobot said, "but sometimes councils and opinions change." In 1987, the County's Number 1 priority was to pave that portion of Sec. Hwy. 646, but in 1988, the focus changed to a secondary highway in the MacRae area.

Drobot was told that one of the petitions had been signed by a number of working wives in the area who use 646 to get to work (a survey shows that 60 wives working in St. Paul and Elk Point use the road), while the other is from area residents in general who feel the road is high priority. Drobot said that if sufficient interest is shown, it is possible that the Minister of Transportation could make a decision to have the road paved.

The Chamber moved to send a letter supporting the petitions to the Minister, in hopes of expediting the paving of the important artery.



FIRST TRIP-OF-THE-MONTH DRAW--was made last week at the Treasury Branch, with Rilla Higgins of Higgins Travel and Holly Astill of the Elk Point Lioness Club eagerly waiting to hear who was bound for Lake Tahoe, while Faida Bykewich of the Treasury Branch made the draw. Steve Wolanuk, who had bought his ticket only minutes before, was the lucky winner of the 3 day vacation, which includes the return flight, hotel accomodtion, airport transfers or rental car, in-flight meals and refreshments. Betty Ann Alexander was the$100 cash winner, while Ron Onusko won $50. If you haven't bought a ticket yet, you are not out of luck--Ms. Astill says there are still a few tickets left, and 33 more chances to win a trip or cash.

Early budget for town in '89

The Town of Elk Point made a New Year's resolution to have the municipal operating budget completed during the first quarter of the year, at their Tuesday, January 3 meeting.

The budget is usually completed in June because of the wait for requisitions, but Council sees no reason for the municipal operations portion to be delayed that long. Departments such as Administration and Public Works were directed to have their budgets submitted by February 3, while boards will be asked to have theirs ready by February 15, with a target date of Feb. 27 set for the completion of a preliminary operating budget.

Noting the 3.6 percent salary increase which was approved at the final meeting of 1988, Council agreed that it would be difficult to hold a zero increase in spending, but restraint was urged in preparation of all department budgets. Each area will be looked at individually to see where increases are warranted.

Street light upgrading approved in the 1988 budget will be undertaken immediately at a cost of $2600 for 5 lights to be installed on existing poles, while two additional lights which require the installation of poles will be included in the 1989 capital budget.

Council studied a complete report prepared by the Administration regarding a proposal by the Elk Point and District Agricultural Society to establish a fairgrounds and agricultural pavilion in Elk Point. They later agreed unanimously to endorse the concept of such a development within municipal boundaries, although some concern was raised in regards to the site suggested by the Agricultural Society. Topographical surveys previously made of that area indicate substantial slopes in the land, and the Council would suggest considering other sites as well, due to this factor.

Ten new homes in 1988

Ten new homes completed or under construction in 1988 top last year's list of building statistics for the Town of Elk Point.

The new homes, along with 5 additions, 2 renovations, 7 garages and 7 sheds or greenhouses, totalled $854,550 in value, and brought the Town $2263 in permit fees.

Only one Commercial permit was issued, for a $2000 addition, while in the Industrial category, two new buildings, a maintenance garage and a bulk fuel plant, and one addition, totalling $215,100 in value, were approved. Three Institutional permits, for one new building, one alteration and one renovation, valued at a total of $368,500 were approved.

Building permits brought the Town a total of $3466 in revenue in 1988.

Another $1200 came into Town coffers from 52 development applications, of which two are still pending a decision.

A total of 74 business licences were sold during the year, along with 88 animal licences.

REFORM PARTY CANDIDATE AND LEADER - Deborah Grey stands victorious beside Reform Party Leader Preston Manning, at Monday's nomination meeting. Grey won the nomination against Richard Johnson, and will be the Reform Party candidate in the upcoming Beaver River Riding byelection.

No new year baby yet

Elk Point Municipal Hospital is still waiting for their first baby of 1989 to make an appearance, with no prospects for an immediate arrival on hand at press time.

During the past eight years, the New Year's first arrivals have come as early as the wee hours of New Year's morning (1987) and as late as January 17 (1983). Last year's New Year's Baby was born on January 6.

Boys and girls are running even in the stork derby, with four of each during that time, boys in 1981, 1982, 1983 and 1985, and girls in 1984, 1986, 1987 and 1988.

FCSS youth program news

By Idella Matthews

The New Year is here and I'm looking forward to a busy action packed month.

Starting December 15 I had the opportunity to get in on the festivities of Christmas.

Helping Carolina in playschool brought much enthusiasm, from smiling little faces. We ran movies for Extravaganza night, not well attended due to all the bingo players we have in town. Those in attendance enjoyed the free popcorn. The popcorn that was left, we gave to the grade six classes and the playschool for their Christmas parties.

December 22, we visited all the Elementary and Playschool children, as well as the hospital, disguised as elves, delivering candy canes.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

For the New Year, I will be concentrating on programs for the 7 to 13 year olds. Some of the things in the planning include Winter Carnival, Crafts, Pizza Night, Taco Night, Games Night, and Air Guitar Contest. For our Craft for January we will need thread (all colors), pins, cardboard, and 2 sided tape. Anyone having these items, and willing to donate please contact me at the F.C.S.S. Office 724-3800.

The Youth Drop-In Centre will be open to Children 7-13 years old - Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Starting January 16, 1989.

This is our proposed schedule for January:

January

16 - Rap Session String Art
18 - Games
20 - Finish String Art
23 - Air Guitar
25 - Picture Frames
27 - Skating Party
30 - Winter Carnival Starts

Also, kids, if you have any ideas or specific things you want to do, contact me, and we'll check it out.

Great, great granddaughter makes five generations

Five generations of the descendants of the Topilka family gathered at Heritage Lodge in Elk Point last week for a family portrait featuring Mrs. Josephine Topilka of Elk Point, age 93, her son Joseph Topilka, 74, granddaughter Grace Zrubak, 43, great-granddaughter Sherry McBride, 25 and great-great-granddaughter Amber McBride, 6 months.

Amber is the first great-great-grandchild for Mrs. Topilka who has eight surviving children, 15 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren. One daughter and two grandsons are deceased.

Mrs. Topilka was born in the Ukraine on June 5, 1896, and came to Canada in 1904. She homesteaded in the Ashmont area with her husband Dmytro Topilka in 1916, moving to a farm in the Elk Point area two years later, and retiring to the town of Elk Point in 1958. Mrs. Topilka has been living in Heritage Lodge since 1986.

Last summer, the family held a reunion in St. Albert, which was attended by approximately 70 out of 90 descendants and their spouses.

Red Cross division reports

By Irene Magnusson

The Alberta-N.W.T. Division of Red Cross offer a fall and winter report, and Greetings to their many supporters. A list of amounts realized from the Annual Sales in the different areas is given.

Elk Point Branches need not hang their heads, as their Fall Bazaar netted an amount right up there with the Sales held in much larger centers, a total of $432 being turned in. The sales around the province came to $21,266.

Knitted and crocheted articles were sent as Christmas gifts to a couple of places in the north, as in other years. A number of centers report their special efforts, with some interesting crafts promoted and offered for sale. Baby booties were one specialty, another had success with crib quilts, and afghans went well in another area. Always the talented fingers of dedicated members are busy - some are able to add to that their own yarn and postage, others give generously of their time and work.

The CREATIONS sales area in the Edmonton Branch has been updated and enjoys the lift this gives workers there.

A special report from workers for Red Cross in the area of Kagore, in Zambabwe, Africa, was given. There they help with basic sanitation needs. such as wells and toilets, as well as encouraging 'help-yourself' projects such as gardens and poultry raising, appreciated by these people who are different from us, but have the same needs.

Red Cross has a large amount of yarns on hand, and listed some, with the urging that workers ask for the special kinds they like to work with. CREATIONS Chairman, Margaret Modin, has the list of supplies, if you would like to try your hand.

The results of the National Quilt Contest are listed in the report, with of special interest to Albertans, the winner of the Infant Quilt catagory being Elizabeth Paul, of Millarville, 2nd prize, for her entry "Sun-Bonnet Sue". This quilt will be raffled on Feb. 14, 1989, tickets available from Red Cross House, Calgary.

The report closed with greetings and encouragement from the Elk Point Regional Chairman and CREATIONS Chairman, Margaret Modin, who suggests we "give the gift of ourselves" in support of these programs, which are aimed at offering International relief.

In a world gone insane, it's good to know there is one organization, Red Cross, which goes on offering help to the needy, without first asking for their point of origin, color or creed.

January blahs

Christmas is over, the New Year is here, and we've been overfed, overtired, overexcited. We've overindulged, overspent, and overentertained. Now we just feel like everything's over.

It's cold out there. The bills for our Christmas shopping are overflowing the mailbox. We can't face another meal of rich food, or the prospect of another party. We're even tired of having nonstop company. All we want is to hibernate.

It shows uptown: the streets are so empty you could almost shoot a cannon down Main Street at noon without harm. The stores are empty, the cash registers are silent, the staffs are twiddling their thumbs and trying to get up the ambition to take the decorations down. Even the coffee shops and lounges are quieter than usual.

It doesn't help that things are slow in the oil industry, with a lot of equipment parked and a number of people (who probably don't mind the fact QUITE as much when it's 30 below zero) laid off.

Deep in our hearts we know that our town is not ready to dry up and blow away, or become a ghost town, and that we're not all going to have to close our doors and go out of business. After all, the January business slump comes every year, just as sure as we hang up the new calendars. It's just that every year it SEEMS that way, until the days start getting longer, and people cheer up with the prospect of the coming spring. Honestly, it's not that far off – only 69 days to go!

And anyway, we probably are much better off than some. We aren't rebuilding after an earthquake or picking up plane crash debris, touch wood. We have good hockey players, good curlers, good local facilities, and good news to read in our local papers.

For sure, we're nowhere near as discouraged as the townsfolk in the following poem, which is reprinted with the permission of the editor of the Post-Review in Hudson's Bay, Saskatchewan, by the request of one of our readers.

Decline of a Town

The men were quite cocky as they stood in the sun,
"Let's all go the city, stock up, and have fun.
We'll buy by the case all under one roof
And save lots too, of that we have proof."
So they did just that for many a year
And from the results never took any fear
Until one day they met once again
Standing up town just out of the rain.
"What's happened here?" cried one in dismay.
Their faces were ashen; they had much to say.
The one scratched his head. The other said aloud,
"There's no beer and no coffee, not even a crowd.
My wife is real sick and right off her feet,
I came for some drugs, some milk and some meat.
The hospital's closed, the grocery store too,
What in the world are we going to do?"
"My furnace is shot and the plumbing all broken,"
the other one gasped; I thought he was chokin'.
"My car's near a wreck and my tires are low,
I need nails and lumber, and there's no place to go".
His friend had his head right down to his chest,
"We're to blame", he muttered. "On our heads it does rest.
We passed up our town for the glimmer of lights,
Bought stuff by the carload and took in the sights.
The City is bustling and bursting with pride
While all our merchants just up and died.
The houses are empty, the bank's repossessed.
I'll tell you, old boy, we're in for a test."
"We should have been smarter and wiser," they said.
"Then the town would be bustling, and not half so dead."
We've learned "It's never too late'," a smart someone did say.
But for the foolishness of many, they'd all have to pay.
They parted at last as the wind turned cold
And muttered "Buy Locally" as the story is told.

Rituals of the New Year

By Irene Magnusson

In the early days, the pioneer families knew Spring had come when the calves and lambs had arrived, the crop was in, the garden planted and the baby had been delivered. There were other things to go by too - the crows were back, the rabbits turned brown, crocuses popped up, the 'clucky' hen was set, green was seen on the grove-top, and the robin came to sing.

We know the New Year has arrived by other omens. The Christmas extravaganza has come and gone, with residual empty boxes, barrels of torn up wrapping paper, over-strained pocketbooks, tons of stuff to find places for, to trip over, to learn how to use, with countless letters and cards, that should, could, would be answered - still, we really know they won't be until next Christmas rolls around. The New Year has come, we know, when the tree comes down, the needles are vacuumed up, the mistletoe unhung, the wreath is off the door.

New Year has arrived when we have put the binge of over-eating, over-drinking, staying up too late all behind us - when the left-overs are finally all gone, the bottles are in the shed, and you've played all the new games at least once. We are well into the New Year, when we have already forgotten all those feeble Resolutions we made and immediately cast aside, when we have had a real taste of snow and cold, when we've ved waxed our skis - and USED them - and had our Postal Rate increase. Some folks may have already put their Income papers, receipts, bills and other pertinent slips into their respective envelopes, all neat and tidy for the great effort of late April - others of us will wait, as usual, for the last minute, sweating blood and losing sleep for fear we have overlooked something crucial.

Some of us will not believe the New Year could come unless they have suffered through a whole string of FootBowl Games - at the very least one - while I have counted that New Years' Day lost when I didn't get to see the Parade of Roses - and somehow missed it this year! Where did it go - or when??? (I did live through it, but it was painful!)

If we followed the New Year as is observed in China, we would know we are coming into the Year of the Snake. I can't find the exact date of the Chinese New Year, but I believe it's coming along in a few weeks (later than ours, but they have kept count longer than we have.) The Ukrainians seem to start their New Year about two weeks later than the Gregorian Calendar (the one we use), and they celebrate Christmas about two weeks later than we do, also.

This year starts off rather dark, the Full Wolf Moon will show its face on January 21. My Almanac says January 14th is "propitious day for birth of women" which surprises me, as I always thought we started off as babies. January 16, 1980, was the great gold top-price-ever day, when it peaked at $760 an ounce. Martin Luther King celebrated his Birthday on the 18th of January, while the ancient Druids welcomed in their New Year on what we call the 19th of January.

Other memorable events of January were the beheading of King Charles the 1st, on January 30th, 1649, a goodly 340 years ago, while the great singer Mario Lanza was born January 31st, back in 1921 - good gracious! If he were still with us, he would be younger than I am!! (And I hardly got here).

Come to think of it, my Birthday is in January, too - but I am sure no one will put that fact in a trivia list at any foreseeable point. On this January 11th day, the Sun should rise at about 8:06 a.m., and set at 5:06 p.m. - see, already the days are getting noticeably longer (if you use a microscope), and soon will be getting warmer (ha, ha). But don't look for the birds to be coming back from the South yet!

Speaking of birds (as I wasn't, but now I am), I've had a goodly number of birds on my trees, in my feeders and otherwise decorating the yard this past month or more. My countdown is: five chickadees, three bluejays, two woodpeckers (one downy, one hairy), one redpoll, thirteen evening grosbeaks, and lately, four pine grosbeaks. There is one less of something, probably a chickadee, although there seems to be too many feathers - still, they are very small feathers, so do not fit the cloaks of any other of my bird-family - and so I must conclude that, although I haven't seen the wretch, there must be a large predator fowl around. My first, second and third guesses are a great horned owl, reason being that I heard one hooting away one evening. I haven't seen any since last fall, when I had a pair of - I think - young ones hanging around. Later, we came across the remains of one owl lying in the tall grass. No signs of a struggle, no blood, no bullet holes. My guess is he ran into the power line, but that is only a guess - I really don't know what did him in. Or who.

So I don't blame the owl for capturing a chickadee and devouring him - that is how the nature of things goes. Each critter is allowed to hunt and devour his type of food; man eats his meat and wheat, fish and fowl (it's just the "trophy" type hunters that get my hackles up).

Since we now have enough snow to allow skiing across the fields, as well as in the woods, I have looked for tracks in my meadow and fields. I would say the "ingathering" has been most complete this fall, for where the snow-patches were thick with tracks of deer and coyotes, early in the hunting season, now there are absolutely no tracks of deer to be seen, only a couple of coyote trails, and a few rabbit pads. So, you huntsmen, enjoy your venison while you may. I doubt you'll see much next fall.

I hope you all are adding a little suffix to your nightly prayers, requesting a few feet of snow in the next two or three months. We could really use it. And if it's not too late in the season, I wish you all a very good New Year - or at least as good as you deserve.

Engagement

BABCOCK and FEDECHKO

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Babcock of Elk Point and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Fedechko of Derwent, are pleased to announce the engagement of their Children; Carol Audrey and Jason John.

In Memoriam

VOGEL, Joseph

In loving memory of a Dear Husband, Father and Grandfather, JOSEPH VOGEL who passed away January 14th, 1985.

This month comes with deep regret,
It brings a day we will never forget
The tears in our eyes we can wipe away,
But the ache in our hearts will always stay.

Always remembered and sadly missed by Wife Mary and Family.

YAREMKEVICH, Katherine

In loving memory of our dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother who passed away on January 14, 1988.

She never failed to do her best,
Her heart was true and tender,
She toiled hard for those she loved,
Then left them to remember.

At early morn, when all was still,
God gave His great command;
In silent peace she passed away,
Into the Better Land.

Always remembered and sadly missed by son and daughter-in-law Walter and Lois Yaremkevich and family.

What's new at the library

We hope all of you had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! The Library has been busy renewing memberships for our patrons.

We had a movie on Thursday for the children called "Mary Poppins." We will be having another one at a later date this month, so watch our column for more details.

For all the people that sew in our community, we have a pattern exchange service; bring in a pattern you no longer need and exchange it for one you will The Library is considering a coupon exchange. Is anyone out there interested? If you are, please let us know. It will be run on the same basis as our pattern exchange if there is enough interest.

NEW BOOKS

Adult Non-Fiction: "The Great Depression of 1990" by Dr. Ravi Batra is startling in its revelations, bold in its predictions, and very convincing in the evidence it offers. It tells us that we are heading toward an economic disaster that will start in 1990 and continue until 1996.

"The Natural History of Canada" by R.D. Lawrence tells the fascinating story of the vast landscape, the rich plant life and the incredible range of wild creatures that comprise Canada's nine million square kilometres. It is beautifully illustrated.

"How to Keep the Children You Love Off Drugs" by Ken Barun is a comprehensive prevention, intervention, and treatment guide for parents with children about to enter the drug susceptible years.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS: We have received the following books to add to our children's collection: "The Foot Book" by Dr. Suess, "Because a Little Bug Went Ka-Choo!" by Rosetta Stone, "Where's Rufus?" by Stephanie Calmenson, "Tess and Tim" by Marc Gave, "The Ghost in Dobbs Dinner" by Robert Alley, and "Those Terrible Toy Breakers" by David McPhail.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to our relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during our sorrow with the passing of our father, and grandfather, Mr. Sankey Kryvenchuk. Thank you for the floral tributes, cards of sympathy and your donations to the heart fund.

Thank you also to Reverend Sam Donaldson for his prayers and messages of comfort. Thank you to the pallbearers, honorary pallbearers and the Elks Lodge.

A special thanks to John Yewchin for his understanding and guidance through this difficult time.

We would also like to thank the Co-op and Mr. & Mrs. Shtyble for the coffee and doughnuts, as well as the Elk Point Order of the Royal Purple for the preparation of the dinner.

Elks win, tie against Cold Lake Packers

Elk Point Elks and Cold Lake Packers fought to a 5-5 tie Sunday in Elk Point, as the Packers looked for revenge for their Thursday night 6-1 drubbing by the Elks.

Only a small crowd of devoted fans braved the cold to take in the game.

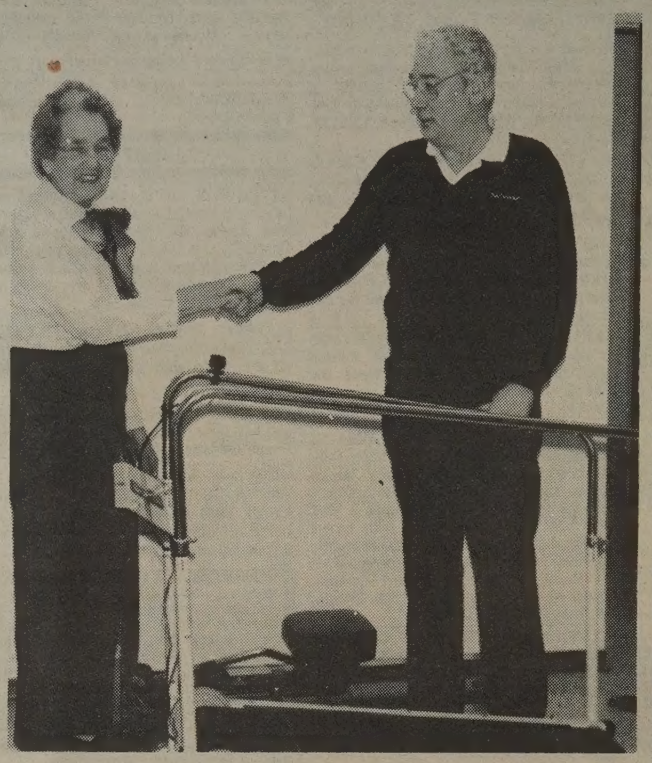
Action was lively during the first period, but both goalies held off the onslaught well, with only one goal scored for each team. Rick McMartin scored off assists by Willie Lesyk and Delwyn Slemp just under 9 minutes into the game to put the Elks on the scoreboard, while Cold Lake's Rob Blick, assisted by Tim Bell and Brian Frank, tied the score with only seconds left on the clock.

The second period saw Cold Lake pull ahead, with Tim Bell scoring unassisted, and Mike Hambley assisted by Brian Frank and Mark Sabad in a second, just half a minute later. Jeff Buck narrowed the margin to one goal with a long shot, off the sticks of Willie Lesyk and Terry Wozniak, which sneaked past the Cold Lake defence and found its mark.

A second goal by Rick McMartin, assisted by Allan Loughran, brought the Elks even with the Packers early in the third period, and they edged ahead with a second Buck goal, assisted by Wozniak and Lesyk. Two quick goals by Cold Lake's Blick gave him a hat trick for the afternoon, and the Packers another lease on the lead. Assists were by Bell, Frank and Guy Dubeau.

Terry Wozniak scored the tying goal for the Elks with just under 5 minutes remaining, off an assist by Kerry Loughran.

The Elks have 3 games this week, travelling to Goodfish to take on the Flames tonight at 8:30, visiting the League-leading Bonnyville Pontiacs Friday at 8:30, and playing host to the Flames in a return match here on Sunday at 3:00 p.m.



EXERCISE TREADMILL DONATED--Elk Point BPO Elks Lodge representative Bill Jennissen presents Lena Kuziw with an exercise treadmill for the use of the residents of Buckingham House. The equipment was jointly donated by the Elks and the Elk Point Lioness Club.

GOOD NEWS FOR YOU AND YOUR ENVIRONMENT

On January 16, 1989, updates to Alberta's Beverage Container Regulation take effect.

Now, more containers like bottled water, juice, and non-alcoholic beer and wine are returnable. The beverage container return system has been simplified and that's good news for you, the consumer.

There are only two size categories you now need to be aware of:

1. Those returnable bottles, cans and containers ONE LITRE OR LESS are refunded at a minimum of 5¢.
2. Those returnable bottles, cans and containers OVER ONE LITRE are refunded at a minimum of 20¢.

Milk containers, beverage boxes, juice and beverage cans larger than one litre and products bought outside Alberta are not returnable.

Between January 16 and February 20, 1989, non-refillable soft drink containers of 500 ml or more will be refunded at the old rates. After February 20, 1989, the new rates will be in effect for these containers.

For all other returnable containers purchased under the former deposit system, the deposit you paid when you purchased the beverage will be the refund you receive when you return the container to your local beverage container depot.

Note: If no deposit was paid, no refund will be paid.
